

MIKE LEJEUNE, CERS, CPC, CTS

Based in Houston, Mike has a passion for developing tomorrow's leaders. One of the first independent consultants to join the Jill Hickman Companies Authorized Partner Network, Mike is a keynote speaker, master workshop and retreat facilitator crafting programs designed to enhance leadership effectiveness, emotional intelligence, culture shaping and communications. With more than 25 years in leading companies and industry trade associations, Mike built Lighting the Path Consulting to help ignite the fire in people to stretch their horizons and realize their importance in the lives that surround them. He served as President of Steverson & Company, one of the top executive search firms in Texas.

He has presented workshops across the US, Canada, and South Africa. Each keynote, workshop and consulting project Mike leads focuses on reasons that today's workforce becomes disenfranchised and offers techniques and strategies industry champions use to lead high performing organizations. His programs address the how-to for building sound engagement techniques and more importantly, challenges the "why" behind approaches and strategies to offer new windows into current day business solutions.

Mike is the host of the podcast series Strategies for Tomorrow's Leaders, where he discusses leadership principles with nationally renowned experts. He is the author of the highly regarded blog, Lighting the Path, and, along with his daughter, Nikki, is the co-author of the award-winning book, A Father's Love-The Generational Bridge That Changes Hearts Forever.

Testimonials

"Mike is one of only a handful of speakers I have heard who truly crosses over, who after touching your heart, moves up to your brain and gives you the words that will come out of your mouth and lead you where you're meant to be."

Danny Cahill, President
Hobson & Associates

"Mike took on the daunting topic, of Change Management but made the content relatable, engaging and extremely motivating! He pivoted between personal experiences, industry trends and small group conversations, that left our group feeling energized and motivated."
