By embracing her top three values of respect, empowerment, and integrity, she provides a suite of powerful, interactive, and engaging (Dunamis) tools for diverse audiences in the U.S., Mexico, and the Caribbean. As a natural change agent and coach, she thrives on moving past the fears while finding the good in change for all involved.

Naomi's adaptive behavior and ability to work with all stems from work experience in various industries: oil and gas, oil and gas services, manufacturing, HR, energy, marine geology, and geotechnical engineering. She bridges the gaps between Executive Leadership, HR, and Staff. She's worked with start-ups and well-established entities. Her joy and creativity are balanced with her work ethic and integrity.

When not immersed in the work she loves, Naomi is focused on family, creating an environment of love, trust, fun, and understanding within her family line. She enjoys family 'get togethers'. A lover of the arts, she enjoys all music from symphonic to the rhythmic beats of the Caribbean and loves to dance. Reading is an ultimate joy, allowing her to unwind and soak up the atmosphere of the space created by the writer. An avid traveler, she creates a positive and learning experience whether locally, nationally, or globally. Ever learning, ever growing, ever creating.
